Imam Khalid Abdul Fattah Griggs has served as the Associate Chaplain for Muslim Life since January 2010. He is the founding Imam of the Community Mosque of Winston-Salem. Imam Griggs has been active in the interfaith community for approximately two decades and serves as a Trustee Member of the Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions, Board Member of Interfaith Winston-Salem, and Advisory Board Member of Compassionate Winston-Salem. He is a passionate advocate for social justice and has been in the forefront of human rights struggles for decades. He is a graduate of Howard University, Political Science/English, and is currently enrolled in Hartford Seminary where is working towards a Graduate Certificate in Islamic Chaplaincy and a Masters in Islamic Studies.

Imam Griggs extols the virtues of living a compassionate life to students, faculty, staff, and anyone else that he has the fortune of cornering for a few minutes. He is active in facilitating the distribution of free clothing, hot meals and emergency food items, health care, school supplies for children, disaster relief, and solicited and unsolicited advise.
